

Lobell Is Graduation Speaker

Bob Lobell, weekend sportscaster for WBZ-TV Channel 4, will be the commencement speaker at the 121st graduation exercises of Andover High School next Wednesday.

The exercises will take place at the Eugene V. Lovely field at 5 p.m., weather permitting. In case of inclement weather, the ceremonies will be postponed to the following night.

There will be 470 seniors receiving diplomas from members of the Andover school committee. Dr. Kenneth R. Seifert, superintendent of schools, will present scholarships.

Lobell, chosen by a vote of the senior class, has been weekend sportscaster at Channel 4 since early this year. For several years prior to that assignment, he was co-host of "Calling All Sports," a radio talk show on WBZ. He has been sports director at radio station in the New England area prior to joining the Boston station. Lobell has degrees from the University of Vermont and Kent State.

The town manager has ordered Recreation Park closed at 10:30 p.m. every night, effective yesterday. That action was taken to help curb vandalism in the park, where large, unorganized groups have been gathering recently, the town manager said.

The town has stocked up on hundreds of inexpensive signs stating the new closing hour. Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark told the selectmen Monday night.

"The typical sign costs about $65," Clark said, "but we have screened these on a cheap, weather-durable material. As fast as they tear them down, we can replace them."

Clark said the closing is the only way the town can deal with vandalism in Recreation Park without additional police department manpower.

However, Police Chief James Johnson

$10,000 Gift To Combat Vandalism

An anonymous donor has gifted Andover with $10,000 to help fight vandalism and crime in the community.

The town manager was given responsibility for the grant two weeks ago, Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark said yesterday.

Clark plans to set up a trust fund advisory board, called the Andover Community Watch program, to administer the fund and increase it with fund-said the police have made a number of recent arrests at the park. He added that a new four-wheel drive vehicle will be in operation in two weeks, allowing police to drive off the road.

Selectman Norma Gammon asked why other areas in town could not be closed at night as well.

"Additional staff would be needed to keep signs posted on all town property, and that staffing was cut from the budget this year," explained Clark, "so we are dealing only with Recreation Park."

Selectman Susan Poore suggested that citizen volunteers could be found to do the job. "I don't think the answer is always more money in the budget and hiring more employees," she said. "The people in the community want to curb crime and vandalism, and they can help us out."

Chairman James Abramson asked Clark to find out how violators of the 10:30 closing hour would be penalized.

36 Restrictions Drafted For Gravel Pit Permit

By Sue Aucella Deacon

The eight-page draft of a proposed gravel removal permit for the Andover Country Club subdivision has some neighbors worried Tuesday night, when the selectmen continued public hearings on the permit.

Some residents feared the town manager's draft permit, which places 36 restrictions on the developer, indicated the selectmen were ready to grant the gravel removal permit to developer Andover-Cormier, Inc.

However, Chairman James Abramson emphasized that the selectmen intend to make no decision before another public hearing is held on June 9, following a June 2 conference session. Abramson said residents' comments would not be heard at the conference session, but that written comments would be accepted before the session.

Development of the 160-acre subdivision, eventually to include 272 houses, has been split into seven sections. The gravel removal permit, if granted, would apply to the first five sections of the development.

The subdivision is located off Canterbury Street, Chandler Circle, Beacon Street and Lowell Street.

At a previous public hearing and an on-site inspection of the development, abutters told the selectmen construction work is creating a serious dust and noise problem in their neighborhood. Some abutters have also said they fear developer Yvon Cormier will not build homes on the development, but will use the site as a commercial gravel pit.

The developer has said that building all the homes could take as long as 15 years.

The gravel removal permit drafted by Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark, with its 36 conditions, "ties (the developer) down pretty tightly on how he plans to proceed with the subdivision," Clark said Tuesday.

He added that, while the selectmen cannot compel the developer to build homes on the development once it is excavated, "the permit can be issued based on the presumption that development will occur."

The permit would be reviewed and reissued every year, Clark said, giving the selectmen the opportunity to withdraw the permit if homes are not built when expected, even though "the horse would be halfway out of the barn after a year or two."

Among its restrictions, the draft permit stipulates what sections and phases of sections may be excavated; requires boundary lines of excavated areas to be staked off; and requires Cormier to retain an independent engineer as a town consultant, post a performance bond of $250,000, and supervise the project at all times.

The draft permit would also require a 50-foot buffer zone between the excavation areas and residential areas. No more than one phase would be excavated at one time, and must be loamed and seeded to prevent erosion problems and blowing soil.

No more than five acres should be cleared at a time without loaming, seeding and other erosion control measures, the

High School Choirs Perform At Jubilee 350

At the special invitation of Ms. Barrie Keller, director of performing arts for the Jubilee 350 Celebration of the City of Boston, the Andover High School choirs will perform at City Hall Plaza, Boston on May 29 from noon until 1 p.m. The various Andover High choir groups that will be performing at this special occasion include the A Capella Choir, the Madrigal Singers, the Barbershoppers and will also include selections by soloists within those groups.

The A Capella Choir and Madrigal Singers have been selected through audition to perform for the Massachusetts Music Educators Conference, have won silver and bronze medals at the Liberty Bell Music Festival in Philadelphia and also have performed at the Nation's capital.

The program to be presented in Boston will include "Battle Hymn of the Republic," by Wilhousky; "No Man is an Island," arranged by Ringwald; "Ain't Got Time to Die," arranged by Johnson; "Choose Something Like a Star," by Thompson; "Cum Sancto Spiritu," (Gloria) by Vivaldi; and "The Last Words of David," by Thompson with Keith H. Gould and J. Everett Collins as directors, Doug Taylor and Barry Ota, student directors, and Debby Grant and Jennifer Casanave as accompanists.

Following the performance, the choirs will enjoy a harbor cruise and will view some of the Tasll Ships and the Carrier John F. Kennedy which are due to arrive in Boston for the weekend celebration.

Deer Jump Hike Sunday

The Andover committee of the Appalachian Mountain Club will sponsor a hike of the A.V.I.S. Deer Jump Reservation on Sunday June 1. Meet at 1:30 p.m. at the end of Brundret Ave., at River Road (Exit 19 off Route 93 for 1/2 mile then turn right onto Brundret Ave. Trek Leaders are Fred Small, Dave Holebrook and Jan Miller.

The Deerjump Reservation was acquired by AVIS from various parcels during the 1960's and today encompasses 129 acres of land bordering the Merrimack River. It extends for about 2 1/2 miles along the river Banks. The hike will leave the Brundret Ave. parking area across Fish Brook, over an AVIS foot bridge. Located on the site of an old saw mill, the to a high bluff offering a vista of the Merrimack and nearby Pike Island. The trip will proceed up stream through heavy pine woods occasionally bounded by fields. The walk will take hikers past the site of an old Jerry Boat crossing which will be noted by a stand of black beaches. Several streams and hemlock groves will also be encountered on the trip.

Inspect the lawn area to be mowed before beginning. Remove objects that may be thrown, and keep children and pets out of the area.

Selectmen Commend Lt. Sutton

Lieutenant Thomas W. Sutton, Jr., of the Fire Department was commended by selectmen for saving a woman's life recently in the line of duty.

Sutton saved a resident of the Academy Nursing home from choking on a piece of meat earlier this month.

During the same hour, a particularly hectic one, other fire department personnel reported to the scene of a construction accident on Penney Lane, and a head-on collision on Lowell Street in front of the Rolling Green.

The selectmen Monday night voted to send Sutton a letter of recognition for his assistance in saving a life, which will become part of his record.

Council Funds Local Programs

The state Council on the Arts and Humanities has awarded third-quarter grants to three local organizations under its local projects program.

The Community Services department will receive $1,000 toward the production of "Grease."

The Andover Council on Aging will receive $500 towards the "Fine Arts Sampler," a summer cultural program for senior citizens.

Doherty Re-Elected Chairman

James D. Doherty was re-elected chairman of the Democratic Town Committee at an organizational meeting held last week.

Serving with Doherty, who has been chairman for several years, will be Barbara Somers, vice chairman; Mary Lyman, recording secretary; Atty. Sabina Bush, corresponding secretary and John R. Williams, treasurer.

Frank Byrne will serve as chairman of the executive committee.

Licenses, Permits Granted

During a regular meeting Monday night, the board of selectmen approved the following licenses and permits.

The Friends of the Christian Formation Center, 475 River Road, were granted a license renewal to hold Beano games 7 p.m. - midnight on Wednesdays. The Christian Formation Center was also granted one-day all-alcoholic beverages licenses for a dinner dance, 6 p.m.-1 a.m. June 4; a retirement party, 6 p.m.-1 a.m. June 6; a wedding reception, 4-11 p.m. June 7; an anniversary party, 3-11 p.m. June 8; a dinner meeting, 5:30-11:30 p.m.

June 11; a sports dinner, 3-11 p.m. June 13; a wedding reception, 2-10 p.m. June 14; and dinner dance, 6 p.m.-1 a.m. June 21; an anniversary party 6 p.m.-1 a.m. June 27; and a wedding reception, 1-10 p.m. June 28.

Bay State Gas Co. was granted permission to excavate to repair gas mains on several streets and to install a new gas service on one street; New England Telephone and Telegraph Co. was granted permission to locate buried cable in two streets; and sanitary sewer connections were permitted on three streets.

Bicentennial Slide Program

The Andover Historical Society concludes its program at the Andover Senior Center with its slide presentation of Andover's Bicentennial Celebration on Thursday, June 5 at 2 p.m.

The spirit of 1976 in sight and sound is captured in the program developed by George Glennie and Mary Winstrom of the Andover Historical Society.

Auction Items Due

By Virginia Cole

Andover's recyclers will be at the Cardinal Cushing gym on Haverhill Street from 6 to 8 p.m. tonight and Friday to receive goods for the auction or flea tables. Household goods, boys sporting equipment, furniture, children's furniture — all are welcome.

The auction begins at 10 a.m. sharp on Saturday, May 31. Ralph Sharpe, auctioneer, will see that things move swiftly. Coffee and donuts will be ready early and lunch will follow.

The cost of printing and mailing and next year's recycling calendar to each of you has been computed. The $1100 needed must be raised at the auction. Any money above that will go to promote Andover's recycling program during the next year. All the money made helps to reduce the amount from your tax rate that supports the program.

So there it is; a place to get rid of things you don't need and to find things you do; a place to meet others with your interests; good food; an entertaining way to spend a few hours; and the money raised will be well-spent — none wasted on overhead or salaries. It's called the Seventh Annual Andover Recycling Auction.

To our friends & customers:

We would normally, at this time, be inviting you to join us in celebrating our 26th business year in Andover.

Instead of having our usual celebration, we will be very busy this Friday & Saturday, serving FREE COFFEE OR TEA to those of you who come in and donate to the LOUISE TRAHAN Medical Fund.

Louise Trahan, the courageous young woman who has been fighting for her life, suffered severe injuries when a boulder hit her car windshield as she drove home from work.

We thank you for reading this letter & look forward to seeing you Friday & Saturday.

Very truly yours,

To Examine Center's Future

The selectmen have appointed five Ballardvale residents to study the future of the Ballardvale Community Center, working with the town manager, the director of Community Development and Planning, and the Planning Board.

The residents, all members of the recently-formed Ballardvale Village Improvement Society, are Bernice Haggerty, 264 Andover St.; Ernest Hall, 43 Chester St.; Sherron Heller, 48 Tewksbury St.; Charles Murnane, Jr., 245 Andover St.; and Charlotte Tynning, 92 Andover St.

The committee plans to hold an organizational meeting in town hall soon, and should have a report ready for the selectmen in three months, said Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark.

Clark told the selectmen that negotiations to lease space for a temporary library or reading room, from Charles Cronin, should soon be finalized.

The space is located at Cronin's ice cream store on Dale Street. The reading room would replace the branch library in the Community Center, which has been closed since mid-February.

Anti-Crime Program Planned

June will be crime prevention month in Andover, the selectmen voted unanimously Tuesday night.

It is also national crime prevention month, Police Chief James Johnson told the selectmen Tuesday night.

Johnson said it would be an appropriate time to call attention to the Andover police department's crime prevention efforts, which have been in full swing since January.

As part of the observance, the police department will hold an open house at the police station, 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. June 7 and 8. The police department has never before held an open house, Johnson said. A crime prevention display will be set up in the station.

High Speed Chase Ends On High Street

A high-speed chase from Somerville to Andover early Tuesday morning resulted in a Charlestown youth being arrested on robbery charges.

Also, the youth was to be charged with assault on a police officer as he allegedly attempted to run down Patrolman David St. Jean on High Street.

Jeffrey Crowley, 18, 97 Polk St., Charlestown, was arrested by Andover and Metropolitan District Police, about 2 a.m. Tuesday on High Street, and charged with robbery of $200 from a Sunny Corner variety store in Somerville.

Boston police began the chase along Route 93 and were joined by MDC police. The Crowley car left Route 93 and headed for Main Street in Andover, with MDC police in pursuit.

Patrolmen St. Jean and Thomas Siopes had set up a roadblock on Main Street where Crowley is alleged to have run over the sidewalk toward St. Jean. Both officers fired shots at the car as it sped off down High Street.

Sgt. George Miller and Patrolman Joseph Becotte pursued the car over High Street and saw a bag thrown from the vehicle, which later was found to contain $200 believed taken in the Somerville robbery.

The Crowley vehicle crashed into the wooded area off High Street at Haverhill Street, sideswiped the MDC cruiser, and returned to High Street, where the car spun out of control on a soft shoulder. Crowley fled into the woods, and was later apprehended by Andover and MDC police.

Gravel Pit Study Group Is Named

The selectmen Tuesday night appointed four residents to a gravel removal study committee.

The residents are Carl Byers, Stephen Cotton, Stephen Flashenburg and Joseph Watson.

Also on the committee are Director of Community Planning and Development Rhys Kear and Director of Public Works Robert McQuade.

The role of the study committee will be to advise the selectmen and the planning board in the development of amendments to the town's gravel removal bylaw to be considered for 1981 town meeting, and to help implement the new amendment to the gravel removal bylaw approved by 1980 town meeting.

One of these wonderful gifts can be yours, and you don't have to deposit a cent! To get a free gift, simply have your friend or relative (who is not a member of your household) open a six-month certificate account for a minimum of $10,000. You receive one of the gifts shown in category B, C, D, E, or F; depending on the amount your friend deposits. Your friend wins, too, because he gets the highest interest rate allowed by law, and a free gift from category A.

If you prefer to open your own six-month certificate account for $10,000 or more, you'll be the one to enjoy great interest rates and a gift from category A!

Rate Available May 29 through June 4.

As if that isn't enough—the accounts are fully insured and the rate in effect when you open your account will be guaranteed for the full term of the certificate. The quoted effective yield is based on reinvestment at maturity at the same rate. However, a different rate may be in effect when the certificate is renewed.

You may take advantage of this free gift offer at any one of our branch offices. Naturally, proper sponsor identification is required.

Regulations relating to gifts:

Please note: There is a substantial penalty for early withdrawal. • Banking regulations do not permit a free gift for transfer of funds from an existing Malden Cooperative account. • One gift per depositor while supply lasts. • This gift offer may be withdrawn at any time without prior notice. • The Malden Cooperative Bank shall have no liability to customers or other persons for damages, direct or indirect, in any way arising from any defect in the merchandise. • Funds must remain on deposit for a minimum of six months. • If funds are withdrawn prior to six months, the value of the sponsor's gift will be deducted from the depositor's account, in addition to the early withdrawal penalty.

Baccalaureate Service Sunday

Andover High School seniors and members of the Andover Clergy Association have been working together on plans for the first high school Baccalaureate Service to be held for a number of years in Andover.

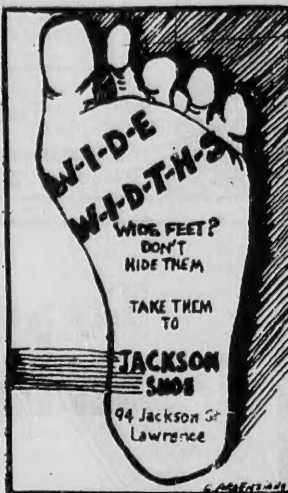

This will be an ecumenical religious celebration for Andover High School seniors who will be graduating this spring. The service will be held Sunday, June 1 at 8 p.m. at South Church, 41 Central St., Andover and will include poems, readings, songs and various speakers who have been chosen by the students on the committee.

The planning committee includes: Andover clergy, Rev. David Melvin, program coordinator, South Church; Rev. Jon Martin, St. Robert Bellarmine Church; Rabbi Everett Gendler, Temple Emmanuel, Lowell; Rev. David Hollenbeck, Ballard Vale United Church; Rev. Jack Daniel, Free Christian Church; and Andover High School students Melissa Bachner, Nancy Balin, Faith Barnard, Karen Landy, Brenda Mesler, Kevin Peters, Robin Pfister, Linda Saalfrank, Laurie Skinder and Doug Taylor.

All high school graduating seniors and their families are invited to attend this special occasion. A reception, with contributions from various religious youth groups, will be held following the service in Fellowship Hall at South Church.

WESTern Roundup

By Tricia Gannon

As usual, the annual open house at West Junior High was a huge success.

Starting off with the WESTern chicken Barbecue, hundreds of people enjoyed the meal. Various classroom displays and contests attracted students and families while the "Westy" awards were given to deserving students in certain areas. The variety show, "A 50's Celebration," was a special event featuring song and dance groups and soloists.

The ninth grade baseball team, coached by Steve Tisbert, has only one game left before completing their season. On Wednesday, May 14, the team lost to Austin Prep by a score of 9-3. Ricky Desmaris, Chris Coots, and Steve Guschoy played very well, however, in their next game on Thursday, May 15. Despite their efforts, the team lost to Lawrence, 3-2, in an exciting game. On Monday, May 19, the team lost to Billerica in another close game.

Shawsheen Play On Environment

On Tuesday, June 3rd at 11 a.m. and 12:30 p.m., Mrs. Susan Infantine's third graders at the Shawsheen School in Andover, will perform an environmental play entitled "The Nature of Little Things."

The insects' picnic turns into a panic when they find out there's an exterminator hot on their trail. The following is a list of characters:

Kids Caucasuses

Special activities for ages 7 to 11 are scheduled at the John F. Kennedy Library, Columbia Point, Dorchester, Saturdays and Sundays at 11:30. They're free, but reservations are required. Activities incorporate Kennedy exhibits, including a historical "What's My Line?" movie.

The boys lost, 9-1, in a game Friday, May 23, against East Junior High.

The girl's softball team, coached by Dave Gangi and Bill Fleischmann, has been doing very well in their past few games. On Friday, May 16, the girls lost to Chelmsford-Parker by a score of 4-3. Chris Kubacki, Anne Maher, and Linda Weiner played especially well, making it a close game. The team bounced back Monday, May 19, to win by a score of 8-5. Anne Maher, Dottie McKew, and Rachel Fluet played very well in this game against Tewksbury. On Wednesday, May 21, they won over Billerica by a score of 15-10. Elaine Scanlon, Dottie McKew, and Chris Powell were the star players in that game. With the outstanding talents of Chris Kubacki, Connie Corkery, and Dottie McKew, the team beat Chelmsford-McCarthy on Friday, May 23, by a score of 14-11. The girl's next game will be today against East.

The girl's track team, coached by K. Kennedy, lost to East in a meet Wednesday, May 14. The score was 54-46 and a record of the team's accomplishments follows: shot-1st, Bryna Jones; discus-1st, Bryna Jones; high jump-2nd, Kris VanOlinda, 3rd, Terri Curley; long jump-1st, Terri Curley, 3rd, Corinne Valcourt; 100-2nd, Chris Belanger; 220-2nd, Corinne Valcourt; 440-3rd, Lisa DeLuca; 880-3rd, Tricia Mirisola; mile-1st, Kelly Shannon; hurries-2nd, Lisa DeLuca; 440 relay-1st, Lilly Hines, Betsy Ehrman, Jackie Collins, Chris Belanger; mile relay-1st, Tricia Mirisola, Kris VanOlinda, Katie Gingras, Corinne Valcourt. The girls won over Billerica, 62-38, on Monday, May 19. The winners of this meet are listed as follows: shot-1st, Bryna Jones, 3rd, Katie Gingras; discus-1st, Bryna Jones, 2nd, Terri Curley; long jump-2nd, Lisa DeLuca, 3rd, Betsy Morris; high jump-1st, Kris VanOlinda, 2nd, Lilly Hines; hurdles-1st, Lisa DeLuca, 3rd, Louise Perry; 880-1st, Tricia Mirisola, 2nd, Laurie Bourdelais, 3rd, Laurel Holmes; 100-1st, Kris Belanger, 2nd, Lilly Hines; 440-2nd, Lisa DeLuca; 220-3rd, Jan Goldstein; mile-2nd, Kelly Shannon, 3rd, Lisa Kelschinsky; 440-relay-1st, Lilly Hines, Sue Heidt, Stacey Phillips, Chris Belanger.

Choral Society In Concert

On Sunday, June 1 at 7 p.m. the North Parrish Choral Society will perform in concert at Faith Lutheran Church in Andover. This performance is part of the concert tour which has taken the society to several North Shore communities and to Southern New Hampshire this spring.

The Choral Society named for the vast geographical area north of Boston in Revolutionary War days will be under the direction of Marie Stultz well-known conductor and composer. For this concert, Marie Stultz has selected a balance of German and English sacred and secular music. Featured will be "Magnificat" of Pachelbel, English madrigals and a selection of Benjamin Britten pieces.

Regarding future events, The North Parrish Choral Society and Treble Chorus will sponsor Singers' Workshop for the fourth consecutive season the week of Aug. 18-22.

Supper

The United Presbyterian Church, 96 East Haverhill St., Lawrence, will have a Shish-Kabob Supper from 5-7 p.m. on May 31 in the parish house.

Rose M. Henniker-Heaton

Christian Science Lecture

Life, if it is to be of value, cannot be stagnant, but must necessarily be active and vibrant and spiritually nourished.

This is the main point offered in an upcoming Christian Science lecture, "The Life That Is Worth Living," by Rose M. Henniker-Heaton of Boston. The lecture will be given at Cochran Chapel at Phillips Academy on May 29 at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Henniker-Heaton suggests that life's vitality does not depend on limited human approaches or circumstances, but flows from what she considers a far more reliable source. This source she identifies as the Christliness exemplified by Jesus. "It is just such spiritual knowledge," she explains, "that gives us an increased sense of God's guidance and impulsion. It helps us to be more thoughtful of the needs of others and it makes life much more worth living."

Mrs. Henniker-Heaton was educated in England and has been the full-time healing ministry of the Church of Christ, Scientist for the past 25 years.

The lecturer, who will be introduced by David Shearston of North Andover, is a member of the Board of Lectureship of the The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. First Church of Christ, Scientist, Andover, will sponsor this free lecture.

Special Performance At Temple

On Sunday morning, June 8 at 10:15 at Temple Emanuel, Haggetts Pond Road, Andover, Stephen Freedman and the children's choir of Temple Isaiah in Lexington, will present a unique Holocaust work.

Entitled "Childhood Memories," it was composed by Freedman, the chorus director, for the special service at Temple Isaiah. Because of its impact on all who heard it, "Childhood Memories" was performed several times in the Greater Boston community. Freedman and the choir will close its year of performances with one final appearance at the Andover temple. Students, parents, and friends of Temple Emanuel are invited to attend. The temple also invites interested church groups and members of the Andover community. Anyone interested in bringing a group should call the temple religious school. There will be no admission charge.

"Childhood Memories" tells the story of the Holocaust through narration and song in a sensitive and yet frank manner. Of the songs contained in the work, three are authentically from the Holocaust period, while the other six were composed by Freedman. For his original songs, Freedman utilized texts of writers who perished during those years. A most effective narration from the viewpoint of a survivor remembering experiences from his youth was penned by Martha Aft, principal of the Temple Isaiah Religious School.

Stephen Freedman teaches music at South School in Andover and was on the teaching staff of Temple Emanuel Religious School for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Bowen

Bowen - Kurth

Miss Cornelia Lida Kurth, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Kurth, 10 Rennie Drive in Andover, was married on May 3 to Samuel Timothy Bowen, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Bowen, of Lawton, Oklahoma.

The wedding took place in the Rice University Memorial Chapel in Houston, Texas with Rev. David Borbridge officiating.

The bride graduated from Phillips Academy in Andover, in 1975 and from Rice University in 1979.

The groom graduated from MacArthur High School of Lawton, Oklahoma in 1975 and from Rice University on May 10, 1980.

After a honeymoon in Germany they will live in Houston where the bride will be employed by the Department of Physiology in the University of Texas Health Science Center at Houston and the groom will attend the University of Texas Medical School at Houston.

Sorority Honors Mrs. Becker

In a candlelight ceremony at the home of Mrs. David Lockwood, 101 Wild Rose Drive, Andover, on Tuesday, May 20, the Exemplar Preceptor degree of Beta Sigma Phi was conferred on Mrs. Henry Becker, 205 Lowell St., Andover.

Six years of active membership in an Exemplar chapter and the completion of the Exemplar cycle of six programs are required for advancement to the Exemplar Preceptor status.

In a second ceremony, Mrs. George Ainscow, 59 Lovejoy Road, Andover, was inducted into the Silver Circle of Beta Sigma Phi, an honor designated for women who have been members for 25 years. Mrs. Ainscow, a charter member of the sorority in Andover, has served her entire 25 year membership in this community.

Officers for the coming year were installed as follows: president, Mrs. Robert Pelrine; vice president, Mrs. Arthur Seikunas; recording secretary, Mrs. David Lockwood; treasurer, Mrs. David Roberts; corresponding secretary, Mrs. George Farrell.

Officiating officer for the ritual ceremonies and installation of officers was Mrs. J. Duncan Black, outgoing president of Preceptor Zeta chapter.

ORE,

Mrs. Joseph B. Paladino

Paladino - Botkin

During an 11:30 a.m. ceremony Saturday in Central Presbyterian Church, Susan Lois Botkin became the bride of Joseph Brian Paladino.

Officiating was the Rev. J. Nicholas Mager Jr. with Mrs. Carolyn Slaugh as organist and Craig Cannon, soloist.

Mrs. Paladino is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lester H. Botkin of James St., McKeesport, Ind., and her husband is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Paladino of Andover.

Frances Nee of Elizabeth Township, Ind., was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Rhonda Gallo of McKeesport and Carol Stum of Indianapolis. Nieces of the bride, Colleen and Sara Botkin, were the junior bridesmaid and flower girl.

Robert F. Paladino was his brother's best man and ushering were another brother, William Paladino, Don DeVeue of West Springfield and a brother of the bride, Bruce Botkin.

The bride chose an ivory silk chiffon gown with ruffle and lace trim, re-embroidered lace marking the high neckline and cuffs, pleated sleeves and a skirt marked by a chapel train. She carried a cascade of white jack frost miniature roses, gypsophila, purple statice, ivy and a white orchid with a lavender throat.

Her attendants were attired in lilac voile gowns featuring boat necklines and fitted bodices with lilac lace trimming the hemline ruffle and double ruffles marking the caplet sleeves. They carried cascades of pink junior bridesmaid sweetheart roses, rubrum lilies, purple statice, gypsophila and ivy.

A reception in the Youghioghny Country Club followed the ceremony and Mr. and Mrs. Paladino left on a week's trip to Bermuda.

Mrs. Paladino is a graduate of McKeesport Area Senior High School, attended Purdue University and was graduated from the University of Pittsburgh.

Her husband was graduated from Deerfield Academy in Massachusetts and Middlebury College in Vermont.

Both are attending the University of Pittsburgh Graduate School of Civil Engineering.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Currid

Currid - Park

At home in Stamford, Connecticut, are Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Currid, who were married May 3 at St. Robert Bellarmine Church in Andover.

The bride is the former Regina M. Park, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Park, Chandler Road, Andover. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Currid of Raynham.

The Rev. Jon C. Martin officiated at the 11 a.m. ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ivory gown of Chantilly lace with long train, that the groom's mother wore at her wedding 28 years ago. She also wore a matching headpiece and carried a bouquet of silk gardenias and roses, with fresh baby's breath and ivory ribbon.

Karen Pereira of Bradford attended her sister as matron of honor, and other bridesmaids included the bride's sisters Sonia Park of Andover, and her cousin, Karen Franzese of Andover.

Richard Secatore of Brockton was best man, and ushers included the groom's brothers, Charles Park and Robert Park, Jr., of Andover.

A reception followed at the Marriott Hotel in Newton, and the couple honeymooned at the Camelback Inn in Scottsdale, Arizona.

The new Mrs. Currid, a graduate of Andover High and Springfield College, is recreation supervisor at the Marriott Hotel in Stamford. Her husband, a graduate of Bridgewater-Raynham Regional High School and the Culinary Institute of America, is executive chef at the Stamford Marriott.

Home Canners Offered Use Of Aggie Facilities

This summer Essex Agricultural and Technical Institute will offer home canners the opportunity to use, without charge, the processing facilities on campus. The main goal of the canning center will be to promote safe canning procedures and to stimulate agriculture in Massachusetts through home gardening and farmers markets.

The center will open June 1, with two hour-hour sessions per day, five days a week. Evening hours will be offered according to demand.

The center can accommodate 15 people per session. Reservations must be made in advance by calling the school in Hathorne

The use of the canning center facilities is free-of-charge. Individuals must supply their own produce and mason jars. Only government — approved recipes can be used. Children under 12 will not be admitted.

Girl Scouts Meet To Discuss Exchange

21 THE TOWNSMAN, MAY 29, 1980

Is Andover, England anything like Andover, Massachusetts?

Do Girl Guides really call cookies "biscuits"?

During the next 15 months, 24 Girl Scouts from Andover and North Andover will be discovering the answers to these questions.

On May 22 at Camp Maude Eaton in Andover, the families who will host English Guides this summer and the girls who will fly to England in 1981 met for the first time. Mrs. Marilyn Nolan, chairman of the Andover Exchange Committee, explained the plans that have been made to date. Mrs. Joyce Regan, Fund Raising Chairman, reminded everyone to bring in 33 1/3 or 45 rpm records in their original jackets. Collection points are the Scout office at 89 N. Main St., Andover, and Stevens Memorial Library and Messina's Market in North Andover. Mrs. Betsy Reddish, Home Hospitality Chairman, asked the girls to sell candy bars to pay for buses and other sightseeing expenses for the English Guides while they visit America.

When the English Guides arrive on Aug. 14, they will be met by the following host families: Mr. and Mrs. Philip Baun, Mrs. Joyce Regan, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Gargalowitz, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nolan, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Aikman, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bogusz, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tynning, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Otis, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Policinski, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perocchi, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Brien, Mrs. Nancy Demrow, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roy, Mr. and Mrs. George Perna, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hulsey, Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reddish.

The families who will provide hospitality to the adult couples accompanying the girls are Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bogusz, Mr. and Mrs. William Westaway, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sagasar, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leith.

The 24 Andover and North Andover Girls

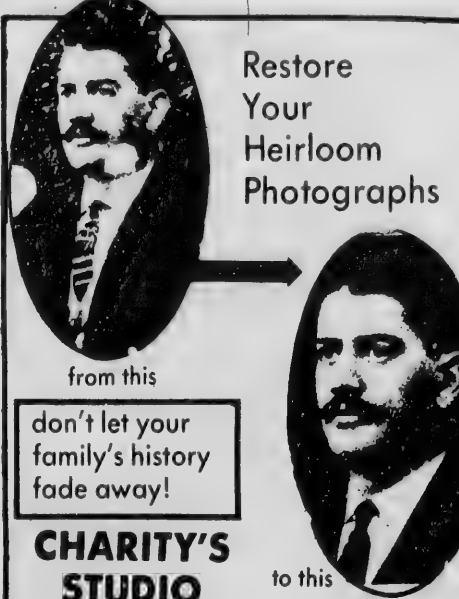

Scouts who plan to make the exchange visit to England during the summer of 1981 are Donna Leith, Kathy Harty, Michelle Baron, Patti Harty, Jill Glaser, Diana Hulsey, Diane and Christine Bogusz, Brenda Regan, Kellie Regan, Jo Ann Nolan, Rachel Foster, Sarah and Jennifer Baun, Sara Demrow, Lorraine Coughlin, Sheila Perocchi, Sherry Perocchi, Christine Gargalowitz, Kimberly Perna, Lyn Denton, Francis Robinson, Ann James and Dawn Aikman.

Summer Program

Pingree School, South Hamilton, runs a summer school program lasting six weeks from June 23 to Aug. 1, with classes from 9 to 12 noon, five days a week. The program, open to public and independent school students in grades 7-12, offers courses designed to strengthen basic skills that are necessary to insure future academic success. Classes average six and emphasize intensive teacher-student instruction and interaction.

Inquiries are welcomed; further information may be obtained by calling or writing Tony Paulus, Director, Pingree Summer School, South Hamilton, Mass. 01982.

Caffrey — Pickering

Elise Trimble Pickering, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Butterfield Pickering, of Redding, Conn. and Andrew Augustine Caffrey, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew A. Caffrey of Andover, were married May 24 in Christ Church, Rye, N.Y.

The Rev. Edward Johnston performed the ceremony assisted by Rev. Robert J. Robbins of The Church of the Resurrection, Rye, N.Y.

Mrs. David King was matron of honor. The other attendants were Ellen Caffrey, sister of the groom; Roxana Pickering, sister-in-law of the bride; Carol Cowan and Lynn Greenberg. Whitney Pickering, the bride's niece, was flower girl. Paul T. Sehl served as best man.

Mrs. Caffrey, a commercial loan officer at the Shawmut Bank of Boston, graduated from The Wharton School of The University of Pennsylvania with the Class of 1977. She was presented in 1973 at the Westchester Cotillion in Rye.

Caffrey is associated with his father in the law firm of Caffrey & Caffrey in Andover. He is an alumnus of Brooks School and Dartmouth College and received his J.D. in 1976 from the Villanova University School of Law.

After a wedding trip to Bermuda, the couple will reside in Andover.

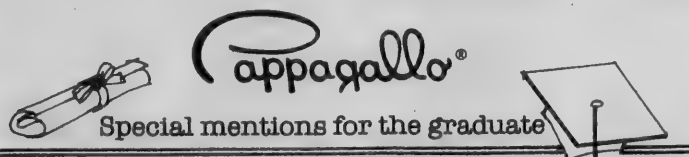

Elected To Honor Society

Nanci Elizabeth White of Andover is among 28 students of the Class of 1980 recently elected to Phi Beta Kappa at Mount Holyoke, a private liberal arts college for women located in South Hadley, Mass.

The Phi Beta Kappa Society was founded in 1776 at the College of William and Mary as a secret society devoted to the threefold ideals of Friendship, Morality, and Literature. In 1831 the oath of secrecy was abandoned and in 1834 superior scholarship was emphasized as a qualification for membership.

Ms. White, a romance languages major, was also named a Sarah Williston Scholar for her outstanding academic record during her first two years at Mount Holyoke. Earlier this year she was among a select group of students recognized as student leaders adding significantly to campus life. Her extracurricular activities include swim team, class treasurer, and student advising. Ms. White is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard White of Bartlet St.

Rock Victim Making Progress

23 THE TOWNSMAN, MAY 29, 1980

Mrs. Louise Trahan, 36-year-old Haverhill school teacher, the victim of a rock thrown from the High Plain Road bridge over Route 93, was making satisfactory recovery from facial surgery this week at Lawrence General Hospital.

Mrs. Trahan underwent seven hours of surgery Friday by Dr. James P. Kartell, Andover plastic surgeon, and was reported in critical but stable condition at Lawrence General's intensive care unit Wednesday.

She was communicating with doctors, nurses and family by writing, since she has a tracheotomy tube to assist her breathing.

Mrs. Trahan was returning home from an open house program at the Shawsheen School in Tewksbury where she teaches, when struck by a 16-pound piece of granite thrown from the High Plain Road overpass. She has lost the sight of one eye and will have limited vision in the other as a result of the rock crashing through the windshield of her car.

Meanwhile Andover and state police continue their investigation of the accident, pursuing leads and tips provided by the general public. As of midweek, police had nothing definite in the way of making an arrest in connection with the case.

Reward money of over $5,000 has been posted for the apprehension of the person or persons responsible.

Right Turns Approved

The selectmen have officially amended the town's traffic regulations to permit right turns on red lights, where signs prohibiting such turns are not posted.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark said during a one-month experiment allowing the right turns, no accidents occurred in town. The town would have prohibited the turns at any intersections where problems arose, said Clark.

All but one of the town's "No Right Turn on Red" signs were taken down in early April, as part of a statewide trend toward easing restrictions on the turns.

A right turn on red is now prohibited only at the intersection of Chestnut and Main streets.

Memorial Day Traditions

Beautiful weather added a nice touch to Andover's Memorial Day tradition, a parade down Main Street and ceremonies at Memorial Auditorium. Clockwise, from top left: Marione Corps Sgt. Robert Lange delivers his remarks; a Marine Corps color guard precedes Sgt. Lange and the selectmen; the crowd-pleasing Clan McPherson marches proudly down the street; Christopher Ritchie of the Andover Co. of Militia relaxes with mom; a veterans color guard stands at attention at the auditorium; a trombone player from the high school band shows his stuff; and Kerry Lacharite, visiting from Salem, contemplates her ice cream.

26 Ben Brown Cited In Memorial Day Tribute

THE TOWNSMAN, MAY 29, 1980

Commenting on the qualities and attributes of "the land of the free and the home of the brave," Marine Master Gunnery Sgt. Robert H. Lange paused to pay special tribute to the late Benjamin Brown, during Andover's Memorial Day exercises Monday morning at Memorial Auditorium.

Lange said the Boy Scouts, Girls Scouts, Campfire Girls, Brownies, Cub Scouts, and members of other youth and civic groups who marched in the parade had, by marching, indicated "their willingness to stand up for their country now and to honor their ancestors who served when their nation called."

"Please God, may these young people never hear that call," said Lange.

"Let no nation in this world make the mistake or harbor the thought that this country is weak and unwilling to defend itself," said Lange during his remarks.

"This nation has demonstrated time and time again to the world that these United States, with a melting pot of race, creed, and color, can and have joined together in a common cause to defeat any threat to the principles that have made this country the great nation that we are."

Lange asked those present to "remember with pride the dedication and effort that all the veterans in our country's conflicts made to make and keep us who stand here today, safe and secure."

In paying tribute to the late Benjamin Brown, past commander of the American Legion post in Andover, he called Brown "a prime example of a person who loved his country. He served his nation in the second world war, and his town, state and country to the end of his days."

"His outstanding example to his fellow citizens can only inspire us to share the 'land of the free, home of the brave' ideal Ben had for his country," Lange added.

Commander Patrick Flynn of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 2128 was master of ceremonies at the Memorial Auditorium services. Rev. David T. Melvin of South Church offered the opening prayer.

Selectman Gerald Silverman delivered the eulogy, and Jennifer Baun, representing the Girls Scouts, recited "Flanders Field," followed by a hymn sung by the high school choir. Robbie Veilleux, representing the Boy Scouts, then read Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

Following Sgt. Lange's address, two red, white and blue wreaths were placed by Anita Jerackas of the VFW Ladies Auxiliary and Commander Clarence Johnson of American Legion Post 8.

Rev. Richard Foley, OSA, of St. Augustine's parish gave the benediction. Combined firing squads, including the Andover Militia, fired a volley, and the program ended with the playing of taps and echo by Robert McKinley and Mark Haddad.

The parade then reassembled and proceeded from Bartlet Street to Wheeler Avenue, and down Main Street to Park Street before it disbanded at Park and Bartlet Streets.

Marching in the parade were the Andover High, junior high and elementary school bands, along with the Clan McPherson band and the Andover Company of Militia.

Local military units and color guards, as well as members of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars were represented in the parade.

The selectmen, town manager and school committee members, were led in the parade by police and fire department escorts.

Logical Reuse For Stowe Is Doubted

The Stowe School, once slated for demolition in July, will stand for at least two more years, and may not be torn down at all if a study shows the building could be reused, the town manager said Friday.

However, Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark said he doubts that a "logical" reuse will be found for the school, which is more than 100 years old.

The school building program calls for the demolition of the Stowe School this summer to make way for tennis courts at the Doherty School, to be converted into a junior high. The Jackson School is also scheduled for demolition.

But last week the Massachusetts Historical Commission expressed a sudden interest in saving the Stowe. Clark committed the town to studying possible reuses of the school; the study will interfere with the building program, he said.

Although Clark said the state's request to study the school was "not altogether unreasonable," he added that he did not understand why the state commission did not learn of plans to demolish the building sooner. The state commission is one of 18 agencies that reviewed plans for the school building program before it was approved by the state Environmental Protection Agency.

The Stowe School is not listed on the Massachusetts Historical Register, as Clark was told last Monday. He later learned that there is no state historical register.

The building inspector would like to see the school torn down, and the Andover Historical Commission has voted that the school is not worth saving, said Clark.

The school is currently used for school administrative offices, but Clark said it would not be economically feasible to continue that use because "the roof leaks, it is inefficient to heat, and it was not designed to be doing what it is doing. Of course, all these problems can be cured, with enough money," he added.

Because the school is located in a residential zone, any commercial use would require a variance from the Zoning Board of Appeals, Clark said. "I can't think of any desirable commercial use," he said, adding that neighboring residents would almost certainly oppose any commercial use.

More likely reuses would be multi-family housing, or low-to-moderate income family housing funded through the Housing Authority, which would be a "fairly strong possibility," said Clark. He has not yet discussed that possibility with the housing authority, he said.

Such a use could have an impact on the building program, said the town manager: "If the school is used for family housing, there would have to be a parking area," he said, possibly necessitating the relocation of the Doherty tennis courts. There are no plans to eliminate the tennis courts at this time, said Clark.

During last week's school building committee meeting, building committee chairman Kenneth Gropper instructed the architect not to revise current plans for the tennis courts. "I suspect the Stowe problem is technically solvable one way or another," said Gropper.

If the study finds no feasible reuse for the Stowe, then it may be demolished, he said.

The town manager does not yet know how the study will be conducted, who will conduct it, or how much it will cost, he said. Clark plans to meet with the state Historical Commission to discuss the study, he said.

Clark acknowledged that there is "a community concern for preserving historic buildings in Andover," calling the local historical commission's ongoing survey of historic buildings an illustration of that concern.

But he also pointed to the Bradlee School in Ballardvale as "an example of a structure that has sat around for 20 years. If no economical reuse has yet been found for that building," Clark said, "I don't think it seems highly likely that a reuse will be found for the Stowe."

Missing After Boat Accident

An Andover youth was missing and presumed drowned, following a boating accident Monday on Squam Lake, Holderness, N.H.

Thomas Hepworth, 15, 39 School St., Andover was the operator of the boat which collided with a craft in which three men from Reading were trolling for fish. Missing from that boat is John Morabito, 48, of Reading.

Divers from the New Hampshire Fish and Game Dept., Holderness police and N.H. Division of Safety Services, have searched the area for the two men, but as of Wednesday morning had not found them.

Hepworth, the lone occupant on his boat, jumped into the water to assist in rescue attempts of the three men thrown from the other boat, and has not been seen since. Two other passengers in the Morabito boat escaped uninjured.

Both boats were 16 feet in length.

The accident happened at the north end of Squam Lake in an area of about 90 feet of water.

One-Way Pattern Studied

Residents of Cuba Street would like to see their street made one-way only, with speed bumps added and trucks prohibited to protect neighborhood children from heavy traffic.

Residents presented a petition signed by 36 neighbors to the selectmen Tuesday night. Joseph Sweeney of 19 Cuba St. said that two-way traffic on the street, which runs from Shawsheen Road to Red Spring Road, endangers more than 30 children who live on the street.

Police Chief James Johnson said the police department began monitoring traffic on the street Tuesday, and would make a recommendation to the selectmen next week.

Selectman Jerry Silverman said he wanted the board to consider taking action before the school year ends in late June.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark explained the town is generally opposed to speed bumps because they can increase the town's liability for damages, and make winter maintenance more difficult for the town.

Making the street one-way would also pose the problem of "which way," said Clark, because it would force motorists to drive either up or down the steep hill during the winter.

Clark added that drivers often pick up their speed on one-way streets, which would only increase the danger to neighborhood children.

One resident suggested the street be left open two ways for residents only. However, the selectmen noted that such an exemption would be difficult for the police to enforce, while Clark said it could be considered unconstitutional.

Equestrians Find Cards

These four Andover young ladies, while on a Saturday ride in the Haggetts Pond area spotted a number of balloons and cards in a swampy area. Wading through the wetland section, they found about 25 coupons from the Brookmont School in Bethesda, Md. The coupons had been placed in balloons and sent aloft May 8 from the Maryland school as part of a PTA project. Finding the coupons and preparing to send them back to the Bethesda school were from left, Elizabeth Bainbridge, Karen Ayres, Mary Carlisle and Kathy Jasmin. School authorities in Bethesda reported that the cards had been reported as being found all along the East Coast as far away as some parts of Canada.

On Surrendering Our Yards For The Summer

We would prefer to bypass the subject completely, knowing full well that just the mention of the word mosquito engenders feelings in this community.

But, based on the experience of the past week and notably the first long recreational sojourn of the vacation season this past weekend, we feel compelled to acknowledge that we must surrender our heavily taxed yards to the buzzing buzzards for another summer.

Environmentalists, and conservationists have constantly impressed on the populace, the dangers inherent in spraying for mosquitoes or the harm that can come to wildlife through a mosquito control program.

Basically they are responsible for the defeat of any mosquito control programs in Andover through town meeting rejection in recent years. Those who would preserve woodlands and swamps for time immemorial want nothing to do with a little spraying now and then so that humans can appreciate their carefully groomed, shaded yards during these restful spring or summer-time weekends.

Town meeting action in recent years, in rejecting any type of mosquito control program has issued an open invitation to the mosquito population to infest Andover, which they apparently have done.

Our crack research team has come up with the finding that there are probably more mosquitoes in Andover than people, plus all living organisms within the confines stretching from Lowell Junction East to the former Brealand Farms — the residential area off Elm Street near Merrimack College.

A ride through the countryside at eventide, if one dares leave the window open, will result in hearing sounds reminiscent of a Norwegian Slap Dancing festival as residents attempt to save themselves from the onslaught of the buzzing monsters.

It is generally agreed that the problem is worse this year than it ever has been in the past.

With that in mind, we'll have to forego any thoughts of energy conservation this summer, and stay indoors, run the air conditioner at full blast and cook over charcoal in the fireplace.

For water recreation, maybe we'll have to settle for the Australian crawl in the bathtub, or try a high dive off the shower head. To venture outside will be dangerous until such time as the Andover mosquito, having become so obese from its local diet, will either succumb or sojourn to its favorite swamp.

Having heard all the arguments against spraying or getting involved in a mosquito control project, fails to convince us that some effort in this regard wouldn't provide some relief.

The one year that Andover had a program against the mosquito, the mosquito population seemed less, and the problem abated somewhat, even if the actual experience was only psychological.

But there'll be none of that this year.

If you want to venture out, bathe the old bod in repellants and head for the mighty, bug-infested backyard, with maybe a spray can at the ready.

As a suggestion, maybe it might be a good idea next year, to schedule a special town meeting devoted to just mosquito control. It should be held in mid or late May outdoors in The Park by Memorial Auditorium and the vote should be quick and overwhelmingly in favor in accordance with the slapping of arms and hands, as voters avoid the pesky little devils.

Down The Years With The Townsman

75 Years Ago — May 1905

Miss Susan G. Meldrum, formerly of this town, is one of the Somerville school teachers who have resigned because they are to be married.

Two small children narrowly escaped being run over and killed on the tracks of the Boston and Maine railroad last Sunday evening. The children were playing on the rails near the freight depot when the 6:59 train to Boston came rapidly toward them. The engineer saw the danger and put the brakes on, bringing the train to a sudden stop by not before the engine had passed the spot where the children had been, they having gotten off the track just in time. The children reside on Pearson street.

The Smith and Dove Manufacturing Co., finding themselves crowded in their present mills, are building a new Finishing and Shipping building on their side track near the Boston and Maine railroad station.

A clouded sky greeted all on awakening on Memorial Day morning and it looked as though a dull day would mar the order of exercises as set forth by the local Grand Army, but before the day had fairly begun the sun broke through the clouds and in a short time a more beautiful day would have been hard to choose.

50 Years Ago — May 1930

Henry Clukey, commander of General

William F. Bartlett Post, 99, G.A.P., was its only representative at the memorial service on Sunday morning at the Ballardvale Congregational church, in the afternoon at the Shawsheen river bridge, and in the evening at Town hall.

One of the most enjoyable operettas ever presented here filled the Shawsheen school hall Wednesday night as "Cinderella in Flowerland" delighted a most appreciative audience.

Christ church parish house and the South church were broken into sometime Friday evening according to a report at police headquarters. At Christ church parish house locks were broken on closets where music is kept, but the thieves found nothing which they considered worth removing.

By a rising vote of 5 to 13 the senate Monday afternoon refused to adopt the order for the appointment of a special legislative committee to investigate telephone rates in Andover.

Andover is pleased that His Excellency, Governor Frank G. Allen has accepted the invitation of the Andover Historical Society to share in the local Tercentenary celebration, he having chosen to be present for the service on Sunday afternoon which takes place in South church at four o'clock, while the governor has no designated part in the program, his presence will lend a deep significance to the occasion which will be full of meaning as the thoughts of those present turn backward for the time.

25 Years Ago — May 1955

A million-dollar school department budget in the not-distant future was predicted this week by school committee secretary William Doherty. He based his conclusion on an average year-to-year increase of $50,000 in the budget over the past years plus extra expenses which will be incurred for the new high school, additions to the grammar schools and increased enrollment in all grades.

Ten Andover girls will be among 58 students receiving diplomas from Abbott Academy next Monday morning.

No decision has been reached on the appointment of a fire chief, it was made known this week. The board of selectmen, meeting Tuesday night, took no action on the appointment.

State troopers from the Andover barracks have been assigned to duty at the Salisbury beach station, which opened last week.

The board of public works discussed merging the tree and park departments last week, but no action was taken. Also debated was the hiring of a new head of the water department. It was decided to interview applicants who had engineering experience.

10 Years Ago — May 1970

The Andover Lodge of Elks is negotiating for the purchase of Fieldstone's restaurant on South Main street. The purchase price is estimated to be in excess of $100,000.

The public safety center is about 30 miles from completion. That's right, miles not days. The mileage is the approximate distance between Andover and where furniture for the new building is sitting awaiting termination of a labor dispute.

Andover's unique principal-selection process was in evidence last night. Anthony Frulla, a New York State University doctoral candidate who has been a teacher and elementary principal in western Massachusetts, was elected as Shawsheen School's new principal. Meanwhile, the four final East Junior High school principalship candidates met separately, and in executive session, with the school committee.

The nine new students selected for next year in the Andover ABC program will include two American Indians it was announced at the ABC annual meeting held at the Bancroft school on June 2.

For Those Of Us Who Are Older

By Janet D. Lake

June 4 is Happy Birthday Day at The Haven with the party at 2 o'clock. It is also the same date as the annual Chicken Bar-b-que at the Vocational School. If you'd like to go to the Bar-B-Que, you may purchase tickets at The Haven for fifty cents. Although the program at the Voke School starts at 11, if you're a little late, the line for that delicious chicken may not be so long. They're going to have various types of entertainment out there on River Road and then you can come back to The Haven Birthday celebration to have dessert. If you plan to do both, don't delay, for tickets to the Voke School affair are limited. Everyone is welcome at the birthday party.

Thursday, June 5, is the last presentation in the series presented by the Andover Historical Society and will be a program of their Bi-centennial celebration slides. It starts at 2 p.m.

If you'd like to go to Boston to see "Fiddler on the Roof" June 11, let The Haven staff know now. Orchestra seats and transportation into Boston to the door of the theater will cost you $20. Reservations are being kept for the "over-60" people only until June 1, at which time reservations will be made available to any and all who wish to attend.

Tuesday evening, June 10, at seven o'clock, a group of women from St. Augustine's Church will present an accordion concert at The Haven. Transportation for this special event will be available at Weebus rates. But call The Haven at 475-3968 to make arrangements for a ride.

A whole group of new classes will be starting up at The Haven June 23 under the Community services department. Among them are such goodies as tap dancing, Jazz-er-cise, and Marion Stanwood teaching Needleart.

JACK ANDERSON

WEEKLY SPECIAL

Vance Confides Jordan, Not Zbig,
Was the Guy Who Truly Bugged HimBy JACK ANDERSON and JOE SPEAR

WASHINGTON -- Most press reports about the resignation of former Secretary of State Cyrus Vance claimed he was driven out of office by President Carter's national security adviser, Zbigniew Brzezinski.

However, Vance has told friends that it wasn't Brzezinski who made his job intolerable; he said that they were always able to discuss their differences on a professional level. The person who drove him to despair, Vance confided, was the White House chief of staff, Hamilton Jordan.

Close associates of Vance tell us that Jordan has little understanding of foreign affairs, yet he constantly meddled in foreign policy. He made off-the-wall decisions strictly for political reasons. But, because of his intimate relationship with the president, he was able to overrule Vance's recommendations.

The word also got back to Vance that Jordan was trying to undermine him with Carter. Jordan portrayed Vance to the president as a silk-handkerchief secretary who was preoccupied with the niceties of protocol and diplomacy.

Jordan's opinion was later reflected in Carter's public statement comparing Vance and his successor. The president described the new secretary, Edmund Muskie, as "much stronger," "more statesmanlike" and less likely to get "bogged down in ... protocol."

Muskie, meanwhile, got off to a poor start when, on his first diplomatic foray to Europe, he loaded his plane with cronies. He brought along his former campaign manager, a newspaper friend from his home state of Maine, and a Capitol Hill friend, Sen. Claiborne Pell. D-R.I. Muskie also took his son, Stephen, who was listed as a "free-lance photographer."

The plane was so loaded down with Muskie's friends, in fact, that regular correspondents for the Washington Star, The Wall Street Journal, the Boston Globe, the Chicago Tribune and the Reuters news service were bumped off the aircraft.

POLITICAL REVIEW: We have been talking to sources inside the rival campaign camps, and here's what they tell us:

* Sources close to President Carter say he is surprised to find himself ahead of Sen. Ted Kennedy. Privately, the president expected the Kennedy magic to set the voters on fire. Carter also realizes that the voters are feeling the economic pinch, and he expected Kennedy to capitalize on the issue. So the president believes he has pulled off another political miracle by defeating Kennedy in most primaries.

* Carter's political pollster, Pat Caddell, has advised him not to run on his record. He cannot survive close scrutiny of his economic and foreign policies. So Carter's strategy has been to divert attention from his record by making Kennedy himself the issue. He will use the same strategy against Ronald Reagan in the general campaign.

* Our sources in the Kennedy camp say he hopes to defeat Carter in the California, New Jersey and Ohio primaries on June 3. Then Kennedy will try to convince the Democratic convention that Carter's record is catching up with him, that he can't win in November and that the convention should dump him.

* On the Republican side, Reagan is convinced he will go on to defeat George Bush in the remaining primaries and sew up the nomination. He suspects Bush is really running for the vice presidential nomination. But Reagan's advisers regard Bush as a lightweight. They want a running mate of presidential stature. Their first choice would be former President Gerald Ford, who has turned down their overtures so far.

* For a while, Reagan's advisers had television newsman Walter Cronkite on their list as a possible vice presidential candidate. Then the journalist took himself out of politics after his name was mentioned as a possible running mate for John Anderson. Many of Reagan's aides still consider Tennessee's Sen. Howard Baker as the best choice.

FUNNY MONEY: Within the vaults of the U.S. Treasury is about $500,000 worth of South Vietnamese piasters and Cambodian riels, which were received as repayments for foreign aid loans. But both these countries fell to the communists at about the same time, so all their money isn't worth a plugged nickel.

Treasury officials recently got the go-ahead to dispose of the currency. The question is, why was the money kept for so long? South Vietnam, for example, fell more than five years ago. With his tongue firmly in cheek, one Treasury official explained that they had hoped the south might rise again.

WATCH ON WASTE: The International Communications Agency runs the Voice of America and other organizations which spread the word overseas that the United States is a land of milk and honey and freedom. Recently, ICA officials decided that U.S. allies in the Far East should also know how much fun the game of tennis is in the good old USA. So, two tennis coaches were sent on a tour of Burma and other Oriental hotspots to generate interest in the sport. Cost to the taxpayers: $6,000.

HEADLINES AND FOOTNOTES: Sen. Richard Stone, D-Fla., is a true Southern gentleman. Anyone who stops by his out-of-the-way suite in the Senate office complex is offered a free drink -- the juice of Florida oranges or grapefruit ... At Fort Knox, Ky., the Army hired contractors to paint some buildings. Shortly afterward, the newly painted structures were demolished ... In the last seven years, the number of prisoners held in all state and federal lock-ups has jumped by an astounding 50 percent. Each prisoner's enforced board and room now costs the taxpayers up to $12,000 per year.

Cardinals Hold Slim Lead

National League

By Dan Grams

With one week left to go in the first half of the 1980 Little League Season, the Cardinals hold a slim one game lead over the Pirates in the National League.

Cubs 8, Mets 2

The Cubs got off to a fast start, with eight quick runs, never looking back, on route to their victory over the Mets.

Rob Hendry was the winning pitcher for the Cubs, throwing three shutout innings before giving way to Rob Nelson.

Walks and the timely hitting of Chris Hansberry and Jay Trepanier keyed the Cub attack, while Bobby Hughes and Eric Goodman played well defensively. Scott Grant turned in a fine performance behind the plate, gunning out two runners for the Cubs.

The Mets outit the Cubs, but could only manage to oput two runs on the board, leaving 12 baserunners stranded. Scott Wilkins led the eight-hit attack with three hits. George Liss (two hits), Mike Powers (two hits), and Chris Bartley (one hit) were the other Met hitters.

Jack Sweeney turned in a stellar relief job for the Mets, giving up only one hit over the last five innings. Peter Trede, Don Hegarty, Luke Wennick, and Jim Keating were standouts defensively.

Cards 12, Mets 8

Scott Deery completely baffled the Met hitters through four innings allowing just four hits, while striking out eight, leading the Cardinals past the Mets 12-8.

John Gangi lead the Cards seven-hit attack with two safeties, while Ted Cormier and Deery had 2 RBI doubles. 10-year-olds Matthew Rubenstein and Steven Donaven each chipped in with safeties.

George Liss and Chris Bartley split the pitching duties for the Mets, striking out four batters apiece.

The Mets rallied for all of their runs in the last two innings, highlighted by a long two-run homer by Sandy McNeish. In addition to McNeish, Scott Wilkins, Mike Powers and Liss had the Met hits. Allan Sillars was a defensive standout for the Mets in centerfield.

Dodgers 27, Braves 3

A 17-run fifth inning broke a close game into a whitewash.

Mark Needham got the Dodgers off to a fast start with a two-run homer in the first inning. Things then settled down until the Dodgers erupted in the fifth.

Mike Dimeo led the hitting stars for the Dodgers with three safeties. Bo Jones (two doubles), Needham (home run and triple), and 10-year-old Mark Elephante (two doubles) also played a big part in the Dodger offensive attack.

The game was highlighted by the relief pitching of youngster Dave Swenson who came on in the fifth and shut down the Braves offense.

Matt Aumais, Bobby Boshar, and Tim Plaehn sparked the Braves' offense with timely hits. Good Hustling plays by Dana Lally, Joshua Yeserski, and David Sullivan kept the game close until the late innings.

Braves 7, Cubs 2

A series of walks sandwiched around some well-placed bunts enabled the Braves to push across seven runs to defeat the Cubs 7-2.

Jonathen Yeserski pitched a super game

Farnham Named All-Ivy

Mark Farnham, a senior defenseman from Andover High school, Andover, has been voted first-team All-Ivy by league coaches.

Farnham was Co-Ivy Player of the Year last year in lacrosse, and this year led Brown to another successful season. Brown finished 9-4 overall, 3-3 in the Ivy League, and barely missed a chance at the NCAA playoffs, losing 8-7 in overtime at Cornell the last game of the season.

Farnham, also an excellent football player at Brown, was named first-team All-Ivy as a receiver this past fall.

Farnham, who didn't begin to play lacrosse until he came to Brown, is described by head coach Cliff Stevenwon as "tough with blazing speed. He's able to take the ball off anyone. He's one of the top three defensemen in the country."

Farnham's older brother Bob, a 1977 Brown graduate, holds many football receiving records. Mark has a younger brother, Paul, who played freshman football (a receiver) and jayvee lacrosse this season.

Mark will graduate in June with a degree in sociology.

Invited To Olympic Tryouts

Art Harris who is the assistant assessor for Andover has been sent an invitation by the U. S. Olympic Committee to be a contender for the Skeet Shooting (clay pigeon) event. During the 1976 Olympic tryouts he came in fourth and so did not make the team which is the top two shooters.

The tryouts are this week in San Antonio, Texas and are shot concurrently with the U. S. International Skeet & Trap championships. The Canadian, Mexican and several South American Olympic teams will be there for the U. S. Championship part of the event as a warm up for the them.

Art set a Western Hemisphere record in 1966 at San Antonio during a World Championship team tryout with a 297x300 which stood for ten years and was retired unbeaten when a rule change enabled a new record to be established.

Having shot for the U. S. on several World Championship teams he has earned two gold, three bronze the Distinguished Shooting Medal — this country highest shooting award — and is a Master in Switzerland and W. Germany.

As skeet shooting is one of the most recent sports to be added to the Olympic Art wants it pointed out that Andover is the birthplace of Skeet shooting and that this sport in its Olympic form requires the fastest reflexes of any Olympic sport.

At this writing it is not known where the U. S. and other boycotting countries will hold their Olympics but Art feels that all true Americans should support the President.

for the Braves. Chris DiClemente, Jeff McNeil, John Twomey, and David Sullivan provided the scoring punch for the victors. Steve Mencis, Jeff Penner, Tim Plaehn and Greg Long made fine defensive plays to halt Cub rallies in the middle innings.

Rob Nelson was the hitting star for a flat Cub team. Jay Trepanier was pressed into service at third base and did an excellent job at the hot corner, stabbing a liner off the bat of Jeff Penner. Jim Regan was the other big stick for the Cubs.

Pirates 8, Giants 6

It took an extra inning for the Pirates to knock off the pesky Giants 8-6. The game was an exciting and well-played game throughout, with the Pirates finally emerging the victors.

The Pirats added three runs to a 3-2 lead in the top of the sixth inning, only to see the Giants comeback to tie it up with a big inning of their own. The Pirates then pushed across two runs in the seventh inning and kept the Giants at bay in the bottom of the seventh to pick up the win.

Mike Morris started, later relieved by Peter Sanelor, who picked up the win for the Pirates. James Maroccowas the big stick in the Pirate lineup, driving in two runs with a double and a single.

The game featured David Schwind's and Will Jones' first major league hit. John Nuzzo added a safety for the winners.

The Giants were led by Chris Colsia's four for five performance (double and three singles). Robby Moody had two hits, while David Wade and Craig Wilson had doubles. David Pratt, Dave Weymouth and Ryan Murphy were standouts defensively for the Giants.

Pirates 12, Mets 2

Mike Morris and Peter Sanelor combined to limit the Mets to eight hits on route to a 12-2 victory.

James Marocco turned in an outstanding two-way performance for the Pirates. Marocco sparked the Pirates attack with two hits, while playing a flawless third base. Peter Sanelor also had two safeties, while Rob Ditroia and Ray Cunningham had key hits.

Chris Bartley and George Liss handled the Pitching chores for the Mets, striking out eight, but walking an overwhelming 11.

Bartley and Scott Wilkins and two hits apiece for the Mets, while 10-year-olds Peter Trede and Steve Hanley made this game a memorable one, with both boys collecting their first big league hits.

Pirates 7, Cards 0

The Pirates got right back into the thick of things, handling the Cardinals a sound 7-0 thrashing.

Rob Ditroia went the distance to shut out the Cards for the first time this season. Ditoia and Ray Cunningham were the offensive heroes for the Pirates, while Steve Gemmel and Mike Morris made super defensive plays.

Rob Carpentier started for the Cardinals, but ran into early trouble, later being relieved by Ted Cormier. Cormier came in and put out the fire, pitching three strong innings of relief, but the damage had already been done.

Scott Deery was the lone bright spot in the Cardinal attack, collecting three hits.

American League

Yankees 2, Red Sox 1

Mark Hashem, Tom DeLeire and Dave Moson combined on a three hitter to down the Red Sox with Hashem as the winning pitcher. The Yankee runs were scored on a walk and a wild pitch. The Red Sox lone run was scored on a double steal. Doug Rotondi pitched well enough to win, but did not receive support at the plate.

Indians 13, Orioles 3

The Tribe enjoyed a laughter at the expense of the Birds with 10 runs in the first inning and coasted behind Andy Frost, Jay DuHadway and Bill Earnshaw in pounding out 19 hits. The Indians' attack was led by Paul Sheedy with a triple and a single with three RBI's, Bobby Pothier two hits, and two RBS's, and two hits each by Robbie Barnard and John Morrow. Chris Nelson was the defensive star of the game for the Birds as was Jeff Smith for the Tribe.

Indians 6, Twins 3

The Indians put together all their hits (three) and runs in the second inning to overcome the Twins. Matt Shine, Jay DuHadway and Jeff Smith combined to limit the Twins to three hits. Dave McDonough, John Morrow and Jeff Smith

Deadder Assigned

Pvt. Robert M. Deadder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Deadder, 125 Boston St., North Andover, recently was assigned as a military policeman with the 194th Military Police Company in Schwabisch Gmund, Germany.

Deadder, a 1979 graduate of North Andover High School, entered the Army in January 1980.

singled in the Tribe's big inning. Twins centerfielder Nick Lembo was outstanding defensively while Paul Sheedy made several outstanding plays at third for the winners.

Red Sox 5, Tigers 4

Doug Rotondi pieced together a masterful three-hitter in pitching the Red Sox to a come-from-behind 5-4 victory over the previously undefeated Tigers. Rotondi was immense as he continually pitched out of trouble caused by defensive lapses and alert Tiger base-running. The Sox jumped off to an early 2-0 lead on the strength of Mike Melia's towering two-run homerun, his second of the year, but went into the bottom of the sixth trailing 4-3. Steve DeVoir led off the 6th with a single to right, was advanced by walks to Gibson and Burke, and scored on Mosa Kaleel's third hit of the game. Billy Dutton, with the infield drawn in, then singled past the second baseman driving in Matt Gibson with the winning run. Catcher Mike DelTrecco's diving grab of a foul pop was the defensive play of the game as it halted a sixth inning Tiger rally, setting the stage for Sox heroics in the bottom of the sixth.

Red Sox 12, Yankees 10

The Red Sox pushed across nine runs on eight consecutive hits in a big fourth inning rally and hung on to earn a 12-10 victory. David Dilling started and pitched well, but was victimized by six Red Sox errors in the first two innings as the Yankees jumped off to an early 6-0 lead, all runs being unearned. The Sox pushed across three runs in their half of the third and then the fourth inning explosion put them ahead to stay. Nassif, Dutton, DeVoir and DelTrecco each had two hits for the hard-hitting Sox who pounded out 12 hits in the contest. The offensive highlight of the game was provided by Yankee outfielder Mike Klinger with the league's first grand slam of the year. Gerry Nassif pitched the last three innings for the Sox and picked up the win.

Orioles 9, Yankees 5

Jeff Kuo led the Oriole attack with a triple and single for three RBI's. Bruce Crawford chipped in with a double along with Larry Middleton with two singles. Joey DeQuattro was the winning pitcher with a save to Allan Reeder who also threw out a Yankee runner at the plate from centerfield. For the Yankees Mark Hashem doubled and Mike Klinger had two singles. Defensively, Bruce Crawford and Larry Middleton stood out for the Birds.

Twins 14, White Sox 9

The Twins' bats came to life as they pounded out 11 hits led by Walt Radulski's three-run homer and two singles, along with Chris Sapuppo's double and single to down the Hose. Steve Duncan doubled for the Sox and was outstanding in the field as was Peter Quintal. Mike Lane picked up the win with some late inning help from Nick Lembo.

Record Performances In Track

School record performances by Richard Jennings in the Two Mile (9:33.1) and Polly Whitley in the Girl's 440 (:61.1) and a first place finish by Kristen Penkhus in the State Class A discus featured the week's activities for the Andover track teams this past week.

The Girl's finished their dual meet season in second place in the Merrimack Valley Track League with a season's record of 9-1.

The Girl's defeated Lowell 75-43 in their final dual meet, with an outstanding 2:24.4 880 by Marcia Stansfield highlighting the performance.

The Boy's defeated Central Catholic to finish third in the league with a 7-2 record. Steve Stabile's 12' pole vault featured that meet as did the outstanding performances of sophomore printers Jeff Guttermann, Gary Milne, Russ Lewis and Dave Fluet, who picked up the slack with Mel Berger, Noel Pizarro, Rip Williams. Bob Flaherty and Bob Wilkins all out of action.

In the Girl's Class A Championships held at Andover on Saturday, the Andover Girls made a fine showing finishing fifth in a strong field. In this meet Kris Penkhus' win in the discus and a school record equalling 50:8 time by the 440 relay team of Karen Surret, Monica Williams, Maesha Cummings and Dayvenne Williams highlighted the meet. Other scorers in the Class A meet were Marcia Spiegel fifth in the shot put, Polly Whitley fifth in the 440, Dayvenne Williams fifth in the 100, Ann Frank fifth in the low hurdles, Monica Williams sixth in the 220, Marsha Cummings sixth in the long jump and Sue Messersmith sixth in the high jump.

On Thursday May 29 the girls compete in the Merrimack Valley League meet at Chelmsford. The boys compete in the State Class A Championships at Eugene V. Lovely Field on Saturday May 31 at 9:30 a.m.

Fishing Workshop

On Saturday, June 7, the Department of Community Services, along with the Massachusetts Division of Fisheries and Wildlife, will offer the fourth and final workshop of their "Urban Angler" workshop series.

The program on June 7 will take place at

Open House

Five hundred Shriners will entertain guests at Aleppo Temple's Fourth Annual Spring Open House to be held at the Shriners' Auditorium, off Route 1-93 in Wilmington Thursday, May 29 at 7:30 p.m. Admission is free and open to the public.

Potentate Harold Larson will host this event for the public to see the Shrine pageantry and entertainment on behalf of the 21 Shriners Hospitals for Crippled and Burned Children including the Burns Institute in Boston.

TV clown Willie Whistle will lead the zany Shrine sawdust joey in their unpredictable stunts. The children will delight to free surprises, balloon animals, choo-choo train rides, and a circus cannon shot with an unexpected ending.

Y Summer Program Set

A full schedule of summer programs for all interests and all ages has been announced by the Andover-North Andover YMCA. Beginning June 30, the summer term will offer to members and non-members over forty activities ranging from pre-school Fun Time and youth Gymnastics School to adult special interest classes such as dance aerobics, bicycling for fitness and slim living.

The YMCA Pre-School Aquatic program is designed to teach youngsters between the ages of three years to six years the basic fundamentals of swimming in a progressive pattern. All classes are small in size to provide personal attention and an opportunity for individual development. Classes will meet either once a week for eight weeks, twice a week for four weeks, or four times a week for two weeks.

The following programs will highlight the youth summer term. Gymnastics school for boys and girls in grades 2-9 with or without prior gymnastics experience who are interested in improving their gymnastics skills on either a recreational or competitive level. Good Time Gang, a day camp type program for boys and girls in grades 1-3. Adventure Club, a day camp type program for boys and girls in grades 4-6. Activities will include crafts, games, swim and gym, roller skating and much more. Trip Club will offer the chance for boys and girls in grades 3-6 to take part in fun and enjoyable trips to local parks, museums, beaches and other places of interest. Street Hockey for grades seven and up, a series of games played in our parking lot. A Skin Diving program including field trips will be offered to youth in grades 7 and up. When coupled with an ambitious aquatic program these special interest classes offer an outstanding opportunity for young people to get involved at the "Y" and have fun doing it.

The National YMCA and Red Cross Aquatic programs will be followed for swimming instruction, which will involve individuals in their own learning experience and allow them to progress at their own rate. Instructors will provide an atmosphere of encouragement, love and trust, a prerequisite for the development of an individual's positive self-concept. Periods of sustained swimming, personal safety, and lifesaving skills are also included in every class. No one is too old or too young to learn to swim or to learn new skills that will bring enjoyment throughout life. Classes for youth will meet either once a week for eight weeks, twice a week for four weeks, or four times a week for two weeks. Adult classes will meet once a week for eight weeks.

For the busy man or woman who wants to keep healthy and fit there's no better investment than weekly participation in one of the numerous fitness classes offered mornings or evenings, under professional leadership. Classes aim at promoting cardiovascular fitness through exercise and jogging. Aquacises, a special exercise program in the pool, will also be available to swimmers and non-swimmers alike.

The Y's Way to a Healthy Back program, a specialized program of exercises designed to prevent and alleviate backache due to muscular weakness, tension and poor posture will be offered for people with back problems who want to return to normal activities. Evening classes will meet twice a week for six weeks.

Other adult programs included in the summer term are Dance Aerobics, Aerobic Swim, introduction to springboard diving, bicycling for fitness, slim living, advanced needlepoint, Advanced Lifesaving, and Basic Rescue and Water Safety.

With the cooperation of residential and apartment complex pool owners, the Andover-North Andover YMCA will also be conducting instructional swimming classes in the Andover-North Andover area.

Registrations for the summer term will begin Monday, June 2, for members and Monday, June 9, for non-members. Additional information including a complete brochure covering all programs, times and fees may be obtained by calling the Andover-North Andover YMCA, 165 Haverhill St., Andover.

Prehistoric Plants

Flowering plants appeared 35 million years ago. Primitive flowers have numerous leaf-like floral parts, unfused and often spirally arranged around a central axis, as in buttercups and roses, Massachusetts Audubon notes. Bilateral symmetry (orchids, snapdragons) indicates an evolutionary advance.

Audi 5000 vs Mercedes 280E.

Give an inch, save a bundle.

Actually, Audi 5000 is 1½" shorter overall. But when it comes to trunk size, Mercedes 280E loses by a margin of two good size suitcases. In the Audi, cut velvet upholstery is standard. It's extra in the Mercedes. Both cars are about equal in head, shoulder and leg room. But only Audi gives you front wheel drive for extra directional control, plus power-assisted rack and pinion steering.

Not bad.

Particularly when you can own the Audi 5000 for less than half the cost of Mercedes 280E. Come in and compare. You'll like the Audi difference.

Fantasticks Open Rep

The world's longest running musical, The Fantasticks, will open New England Repertory Theatre's eighth season. This will be a nostalgic trip back in time for the theatre company whose first production was a Porter-Gershwin musical revue. The Fantasticks will be performed July 31 through Sept. 21 at the New England Repertory Theatre's playhouse at 23 Oxford St., in Worcester.

Other offerings for the season include Moliere's Tartuffe, an original production of Beauty and the Beast, Shakespeare's Othello, Ibsen's An Enemy of the People, and Shepard's A Tooth of Crime.

Tripoli Bakery

Summer's coming! Turn off your oven and get out in the sunshine — let Tripoli Bakery, 106 Common Street in Lawrence do your baking. They always have plenty of fresh baked goods on hand to serve to family and friends.

Warm, crusty Italian bread is baked on the premises daily. You can also get delicious pastries of all kinds, doughnuts, cookies, cakes, pies, squares, fancy cakes for parties, and all types of homemade rolls for any occasion.

Enjoy Tripoli Pizza at home or at the beach. Tripoli Pizza Shop is open in Lawrence Friday, Saturday & Sunday, and every day at their Salisbury Beach location. Tripoli, serving the Merrimack Valley for generations!

Kampus Kuts

Hair cutting and styling for men, women and children of all ages are featured at Kampus Kuts, Chapel Avenue, Andover, in the Lower Level of the Andover Inn. The newest techniques in cuts, perms and color are used in this complete unisex shop.

Kampus Kuts suggests a new foam perm for summer — combined with a wash and wear cut — for a soft curly look that is cool, comfortable and oh so attractive! Or how about a body perm, a blow cut, frosting, highlighting, henna, braiding or Swedish styling.

See Maria and her staff of experienced stylists at Kampus Kuts, open Monday through Saturday. Walk in, or tel. 470-1544.

BENEFITS OF HOME OFFICE

There's an increasing trend today toward operating an office or small business from the owner's home. Not only is there a complete elimination of commuting time and reduction in overhead costs, but there are tax advantages too.

The taxpayer can deduct, as an operating expense, the pro-rated share of such items as electricity, heating, house depreciation, telephone, and the cost of repairs which benefit the property as a whole. The computation is usually based on the amount of space used for the business.

However, before setting yourself up for a letdown, check the zoning regulations for your area. It may or may not preclude using your home for the type of business you have in mind. Better yet, if you are looking for a new home to fit these needs, check with our office and let us do the leg-work for you.

Remember, though, that the 1976 Tax Reform law tightened the requirement in order to take the deduction for the home office. It must be used as a full time office and not a part-time affair.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Punchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

raising activities, he told the selectmen Tuesday night.

The board will include representatives of church groups, schools and the business community who have shown an interest in working with the police to fight crime and vandalism, Police Chief James Johnson told the selectmen.

The selectmen voted that their board should also be represented on the trust fund advisory board, because it will be a "policy-making board," Selectman Susan Poore said.

draft states.

The draft permit also controls blasting and hauling, and offers insurance protection to both the town and abutters.

Abutters present at Tuesday's meeting repeated their fears that blowing dust at the development is endangering their health. "The health of our children should not be the down payment on the homes of our future neighbors," said Arnold Menken of 95 Lowell St.

Several urged the permit be denied because the town could not sufficiently control the development. Stephen Cotton of Foster's Pond earned loud applause when he said, "You have seen but a small proportion of the difficulties these residents will have to live with, a very small fraction of the damage these residents will suffer."

"This development is not really incidental to a subdivision," Cotton continued, "but is a commercial gravel pit. And it is not simply a gravel pit, but five successive gravel pits, each separate and distinct."

The proposed restrictions in the permit would serve only to draw the process out, over a devastatingly long period of time, in a kind of Chinese water torture for these residents."

Robert Bradway of 18 Chandler Circle also urged denial of the permit, because "nowhere are there written assurances that homes will be built."

Abutter Nicholas Hill of 83 Lowell St., recommended that all activity at the country club should stop immediately and be "carefully evaluated" because it could endanger an important water storage area.

Hill based his comments on a 1979 report to the town, compiled by Terrain Investigations, Inc. He charged that the Planning Board did not adequately consider the report before granting approval of Cormier's preliminary plans.

However, John Zipeto of 14 Canterbury St. suggested that the development would be acceptable to the abutters, if Cormier would build half the house planned before continuing excavation. Zipeto said such action would show the developer's "good faith. It's a question of being good neighbors."

Arthur Fosse of the engineering firm Dana F. Perkins Associates who was present at the hearing, representing Andover-Cormier, described soil control measures the developer has taken during the past week.

Following a meeting with a soil conservation expert from the United States Department of Agriculture, the developer has covered the exposed land behind Lowell Street with straw, and is planning to anchor the straw with plastic netting, Fosse said. In addition, the developer will grade excavated sections of the site at a two-to-one slope, Fosse said, and loam and seed each phase, cut trees and remove the stumps, and move the snow fence to the edge of each newly-disturbed area as excavation proceeds.

Andover Players In Concert

Authentic ragtime music; a twentieth century jazz-influenced "small masterpiece"; and a French chamber work are the elements in a concert to be presented this Friday night, May 30, at 7 p.m. in Kemper Auditorium at Phillips Academy. The Andover Players, a newly formed professional ensemble based in the Merrimack Valley, will be giving its premiere concert under the direction of Richard H. Wilson.

Pieces by Scott Joplin, Joseph Lamb, and Eubie Blake, three of the principal figures of the ragtime era, make up the first half of the program. The second half begins with Faure's Fantasia for flute and piano, performed by Amy Flemming, flute, and Tanya Bartevyan-Gailus, piano. The final work is Darius Milhaud's Le Creation du Monde in which Milhaud takes the sounds of 1920's American Jazz and makes them his own in a most striking way. Admission to the concert is free and the public is invited to attend.
